? EASTS NZ activities since October 2012

2012

- Completion of EASTS NZ Charter
- Set-up of EASTS NZ board under current review
- EASTS/CILT Transportation Forum in Tauranga 2012

2013

- Attendance of EASTS conference Taipei 2013,
 - presentation of conference papers by P Ranjitkar & J-P Thull
 - attendance of 2013 EASTS board meetings, support of EASTS during conference
 - presentation of NZ society report
- EASTS NZ proposed at the last board meeting to set up EASTS internship programme across EASTS countries
 - EASTS NZ proposed to help set up or run a system that would help liaising between academia, government agencies and industry

- EASTS may take a lead and create links with other existing organisations like CILT, IPENZ, transport, CBAFF – just to mention NZ examples

2014

- Identifying potential organisations able to link with EASTS NZ in a beneficial way (e.g. ASEAN, NZ Trade & Enterprise)
 - ASEAN-EASTS joint membership was briefly discussed with David Catty (FCILT) but requires further investigations in a view to enhancing consultancy and research links and benefits from existing ASEAN connections
- Attendance of the EASTS board meeting in Tokyo, October 2014
- EASTS NZ presented its first International Research Group IRG project to the board in October. The IRG was put on hold to be reviewed in order to include a greater number of EASTS countries. The project included Indonesia and NZ and was based on livestock transport management. An updated version has not been presented yet due to a lack of funding.

2015

- Book publication highlighting 20 years of EASTS. The domestic societies were asked to contribute a chapter outlining two infrastructure projects and a consultation process identifying outstanding NZ projects was conducted. The AUCKLAND VIADUCT and the CHRISTCHURCH INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT were chosen as the submission from EASTS NZ. A copy of this is attached. Many thanks to those who supported me regarding the project as it was not a straight forward process. Book link <http://www.easts.info/publications/general/978-4-908595-00-4.pdf>
- EASTS CEBU conference: attendance P Ranjitkar & J-P Thull
- EASTS NZ nominated to be chief judge for best poster and presentation at EASTS conferences for next 3 years
- Life membership for Dr Chris Kissling, emeritus professor for transportation (Lincoln University)
- Replacement of Dr Prakash Ranjitkar (academic advisor) through Dr Abraham Zhang (AUT Auckland)

2016

- EASTS NZ initiated contacts with MFAT regarding funding opportunities to boost any IRG funding source.
- Resignation of Mr David Kriel (Tauranga) as 1st Vice-president- Aug 2016, replaced by Mr Daniel Silva (Auckland)
- Copy of the EASTS book handed to Hon. Simon Bridges, Minister of Transport
- Contact made with the Minister of Transport, outlining the benefits of EASTS to NZ and request for monetary support.
- Update on membership list and making contact with the members
- Initiating contact with industry towards sponsorship
- Compiling of newsletter to EASTS NZ members
- Preparation of EASTS NZ domestic report and collection of subs
- EASTS NZ invited to give a presentation on SMART TRANSPORTATION at the Vietnamese transport symposium on 13 September. This conference is sponsored by the Vietnamese government, the German DAAD, GTZ and the Vietnamese-German University

What next?

- Increase of EASTS NZ activities with the support of academics and industry (e.g. joint seminars CILT-IPENZ- CBAFF & EASTS NZ)
- Liaison with ASEAN NZ president & NZ industry/government leaders; Identify how ASEAN could be benefitting EASTS NZ
- Increase exposure of EASTS NZ within academia across NZ
- Encouragement for NZ members to join the next EASTS conference
- Assessing how an international internship programme could operate
- Increasing number board meetings
- Seeking sponsors to cover operational costs to enable to run EASTS NZ more efficiently
